Welcome Message

Dear Esteemed Friends & Colleagues,

Together, let us script the next chapter of South Indian urology.

It gives us great pleasure to invite you to the 36th Annual Conference of the Association of Southern Urologists – SZUSICON 2025, to be held in Vijayawada, Andhra Pradesh.

This year's conference will bring together leading minds in urology for high-impact scientific sessions, live surgical workshops, and in-depth discussions on evolving trends in urological practice. A key highlight will be the Workshop on BPH Management, featuring the latest technologies in minimally invasive care.

Whether you're a seasoned expert or an aspiring urologist, SZUSICON 2025 offers a vibrant platform to learn, connect, and collaborate in an atmosphere of academic excellence and camaraderie.

Vijayawada, nestled along the Krishna River, offers more than just a venue—it is a city of heritage and hospitality. Explore the sacred Kanaka Durga Temple, the tranquil Bhavani Island, and the iconic Prakasam Barrage. Discover the craftsmanship of Kondapalli toys, the elegance of Mangalagiri handlooms, and indulge in Andhra's famed delicacies like Pootharekulu and Kova.

We are excited to welcome you to a city where science meets tradition, and where Surgical Skill, Scientific Strength, and Southern Spirit converge to create an unforgettable experience.

Under the gracious guidance of our mentors and the unwavering support of our seniors, we invite you to be part of this landmark event.

Warm regards,
Organizing Committee SZUSICON 2025

Special Darshan at Sri Kanaka Durga Temple

Start Your Day with Divine Grace

Perched atop the sacred Indrakeeladri Hill, overlooking the serene Krishna River, Sri Kanaka Durga Temple is one of Andhra Pradesh's most revered spiritual landmarks. Here, the goddess is worshipped in ten divine forms—most notably as Mahishasura Mardini, the vanquisher of evil—symbolizing protection, courage, and grace.

Adjacent to the temple stands the Malleshwara Swamy Temple, dedicated to Lord Shiva, adding to the spiritual richness of this sacred hill. Pilgrims often take a holy dip in the Krishna River before offering prayers, marking a ritual of purification and peace.

We are delighted to offer SZUSICON 2025 delegates an opportunity for a serene early morning special darshan at Sri Kanaka Durga Temple, including:

- Ashirvachanam – Divine blessings from the temple priests
(Subject to feasibility)
- A sacred Kanduva – A holy shawl as a token of grace
- Prasadam – Offered from the sanctum of the goddess

Darshan Timings:

- July 11th, 12th & 13th | 5:30 AM – 7:30 AM
- (Approx. duration: 1–2 hours)

Reserve Your Spiritual Start

To join this special darshan, please contact the SZUSICON 2025 Secretariat Office to secure your slot and receive further details.

Kindly wear modest/traditional attire and arrive on time to make the most of this divine experience.

Explore Vijayawada Top 8 attractions

Welcome to Vijayawada!

As you attend SZUSICON 2025, immerse yourself in the vibrant culture, rich history, and scenic beauty of Vijayawada. From ancient temples to serene parks, the city offers a diverse array of attractions to enrich your conference experience.

An iconic bridge spanning the Krishna River, Prakasam Barrage is a marvel of engineering and a symbol of Vijayawada's heritage. By day, it facilitates irrigation and transportation; by night, it transforms into a luminous spectacle, making it perfect for evening strolls and photography. Notably, in 2023, it was recognized as a World Heritage Irrigation Structure by the International Commission on Irrigation and Drainage (ICID), highlighting its historical significance and contribution to irrigation in the region.

PRAKASAM BARRAGE

PANAKALA LAKSHMI NARASIMHA TEMPLE, MANGALAGIRI

Situated atop the auspicious hill of Mangalagiri, this ancient Vaishnavite temple is one of the eight sacred Mahakshetras of Lord Vishnu in India. Unique to this temple is the ritual where jaggery water (Panakam) is offered to the deity, believed to be consumed by the Lord himself. The temple's spiritual ambiance and panoramic views make it a must-visit.

Standing at 125 feet, the Dhyana Buddha Statue is a testament to peace and meditation. The statue sits on a lotus platform supported by eight pillars, symbolizing Buddha's Eightfold Path to salvation. The surrounding area is divided into zones representing the Four Noble Truths, offering a serene environment for reflection.

DHYANA BUDDHA STATUE, AMARAVATI

UNDAVALLI CAVES

These 4th-century rock-cut caves showcase a blend of Hindu, Jain, and Buddhist architectural influences. Carved out of solid sandstone, the multi-storied caves house a massive monolithic statue of Lord Vishnu in a reclining posture. The site reflects the religious harmony and architectural prowess of ancient India.

Perched atop a hill, Kondapalli Fort dates back to the 14th century and was constructed by the Musunuri Nayaks. Over the centuries, it served various rulers, including the Qutb Shahi dynasty and the British. Adjacent to the fort is the Kondapalli Forest Reserve, home to diverse flora and fauna, making it ideal for nature walks and exploration.

KONDAPALLI FORT & FOREST RESERVE

ATAPAKA BIRD SANCTUARY (KOLLERU LAKE)

A haven for bird enthusiasts, this sanctuary near Kolleru Lake attracts migratory birds like spot-billed pelicans and painted storks. Best visited during early mornings, it offers a peaceful environment to observe avian life in their natural habitat.

Located about 70 km from Vijayawada, this temple is dedicated to Lord Subramanya (Murugan). It's believed to fulfill the wishes of devotees, especially childless couples. The temple's serene setting adds to its spiritual allure.

SUBRAMANYA SWAMY TEMPLE, MOPIDEVI

RAJIV GANDHI PARK

Situated in the heart of Vijayawada, Rajiv Gandhi Park is a family-friendly destination featuring a mini zoo, musical fountains, toy train rides, and well-maintained gardens. It's an ideal spot for relaxation and children's recreation.

Make the Most of Your Visit!

Don't miss the opportunity to explore these captivating sites during your stay. Whether you're seeking spiritual solace, historical insights, or leisurely strolls, Vijayawada has something for everyone.

VIJAYAWADA

Well-Connected, Well-Planned

Located in the heart of Andhra Pradesh, Vijayawada is seamlessly connected by air, rail, and road to all parts of South India and beyond. Whether you're arriving from Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, Kerala, or Telangana, getting to SZUSICON 2025 is smooth and convenient.

Vijayawada International Airport (VGA) at Gannavaram (18 km from the city) offers regular direct or connecting flights from:

- Tamil Nadu – Chennai, Coimbatore, Madurai
- Karnataka – Bangalore, Mangalore, Belgaum, Mysore
- Kerala – Kochi, Thiruvananthapuram, Calicut
- Telangana – Hyderabad
- Other Cities – Delhi, Mumbai, Pune, Kolkata

Taxis and app-based cabs (Ola, Uber) ensure smooth transfers to hotels and the conference venue

BY AIR

Vijayawada Junction (BZA) is one of South India's busiest and most strategically located railway stations. Sitting at the intersection of the Chennai–Delhi and Howrah–Mumbai lines, it offers excellent connectivity across the country. Local transport is easily available from the station.

BY RAILWAYS

Vijayawada is well-connected via NH-16 and NH-65.

Reliable bus and taxi services operate from Hyderabad, Chennai, Bangalore, Visakhapatnam, and other nearby cities—making road travel convenient for regional delegates.
